E F# B G#m

[Verse 1]

E F#
Well it was down some street we couldn't even pronounce
B C#
We were smoking a little from a half an ounce
E F# G#m B
Tequila was cheap but the flow we were feeling was real
E F#
Neither one of us looking for three little words
B C#
Unless those three words were 'do not disturb'
E F# B
Checkout was s'posed to be noon but we slept in 'til three

[Chorus]

E F# B
She kept the hotel key
G#m
Slipped it in her purse, I guess
E F# B
It makes her think of me
G#m E F#
And that night we left our hearts on our sleeves and the clothes all over the floor
B G#m
We both know we can't open the door no more
E F# B
But she kept the hotel key

[Verse 2]

E F#
Well I could still see her on the bed sitting Indian style

B C#
 With my t-shirt on and a half drunk smile
E F# G#m B
 She talked about Austin and how she'd get back there someday
E F#
 We had the curtains wide open and a song on my phone
B C#
 We danced by the TV we never turned on
E F# G#m B
 And wondered would anyone miss us if we ran away
E F# B
 But this isn't one of those stories that ends up that way, na

[Chorus]

E F# B
 She kept the hotel key
G#m
 Slipped it in her purse, I guess
E F# B
 It makes her think of me
G#m E F#
 And that night we left our hearts on our sleeves and the clothes all over the floor
B G#m
 We both know we can't open the door no more
E F# B G#m
 But she kept the hotel key, yeah
